Film Screening starts at 7:00PM

St. George's GLBT Ministry, Outreach Ministry, and co-Sponsor organizations Shanti Orange County and PFLAG South Orange County are hosting a public screening of "for the BIBLE tells me so" -- NY Magazine says, "It confronts, with whimsy, and hellfire the clash between religion and homosexuality." NPR says, "An incredibly powerful film everybody should see. It restores your faith in people."

Co-Executive Producers Sandra Hartness and Karen Ellis from Laguna Beach will provide a brief introduction to the film, which runs about 90 minutes, and will conduct a Q&A following.

No charge for admission
Freewill offerings accepted
Popcorn, beverages will be offered for sale.

All profits will benefit St. George's general operating fund
See ads in St. George's Church Bulletin, the Blade, Shanti Orange County, PFLAG So. OC, etc.

Educational outreach, in alignment with the mission of St. George's - an open community growing in God's unconditional love.

Community Outreach – through the co-sponsorship by Shanti Orange County and PFLAG South Orange County.
